

Living History Performance of Harriet Tubman Saturday September 14th - 2 pm

The John Brown Farm State Historic Site will present a living history performance based on the life of Harriet Tubman. This program offers a close look into the life and achievements of Harriet Tubman (known also as General Moses), whose life was a monument to courage and determination that continues to stand out in American history.

This will be an outdoor program that will take place behind the barn. (if weather is inclement-under the tent)

This event is free to the public.

The John Brown Farm is located at 115 John Brown Road, a half mile north of State Route 73, in North Elba 2 miles east of the village of Lake Placid.
