HIGH FLYING ADVENTURES: AVIATION HISTORY IN THE HIGH PEAKS

Aviation in the Adirondacks

Charles Lindbergh in Lake Placid, 1939

Aurora Pfaff

7 PM on March 19th at the Lake Placid Center for the Arts

The recorded program will also be available on the Society's YouTube channel at <https://www.youtube.com/@DigitalMedia-LPNEHS> after March 19th.

From Adirondack hermits to national heroes, Lake Placid's aviation history is a unique one. In High-Flying Adventures, local author Aurora Pfaff will share exciting stories from the area's aviation history, including Noah John Rondeau, Charles Lindbergh, flying circuses, and much more. The program is based on her 2024 book, Images of America: Aviation in the Adirondacks, published by Arcadia Publishing. The event will include a book signing by Aurora at the end of the program. Books will also be available for purchase at that time.

Aurora Wheeler Pfaff is a freelance writer based in Saranac Lake. Ms. Pfaff graduated with a master's degree in liberal arts from the Harvard Extension School, where she studied Victorian literature. In addition to Aviation in the Adirondacks, Aurora has been published in the magazines Adirondack Life, Majesty, LOCALadk, New York Archives and Beyond Words literary magazine. She is currently at work on a memoir about her relationship with her grandmother.

This program is free and open to the public.

Refreshments and an opportunity to buy raffle tickets for a basket of goodies will be available.
